

ATTRACTIONS AND PLACES OF INTEREST IN DAYTONA BEACH

Fishing and Boating

Deep-Sea:

The Daytona Beach area features some of the best ocean fishing found anywhere. Marlin, with an emphasis on Blues, are found in the Gulf Stream. Closer to shore, Sailfish, Dolphin, King Mackerel, Wahoo and Tuna are caught on trolled baits. On the bottom around the numerous reefs, Grouper and Red Snapper are the most avidly sought species while the bruising kingsize Jack Crevalle and Amberjack provide tackle-busting variety. A fleet of nearly 25 offshore craft -- including both private charter and party boats -- sails daily, most from the docks at Ponce Inlet. The area plays host to the Greater Daytona Beach Striking Fish tournament each May.

Surf and Pier:

Surf fishing here is a year-round sport. It requires only medium-weight tackle and some shrimp or mullet for bait. Hard-fighting species like Pompano, Whiting, Bluefish, Redfish, Flounder and Jack Crevalle thrive in the 23-mile stretch of fishing area. Many varieties of fish are caught from the Ocean Pier in the heart of Daytona Beach and the Sunglow Pier located at the southern end of the beach. There is a daily pier charge, with monthly and seasonal passes available.

A Tiny Cruise Line:

401 S. Beach Street, Daytona Beach (904) 226-2343. Explore the Halifax River at a leisurely pace on an 1890s-style Fantail Launch, and see historic homes and beautiful parks, islands and marinas. Dolphins and diving birds frequently provide entertainment during the ride. Tours include the Midday Waterway, Riverfront Estates, Historic Downtown and Sunset/City Lights Excursions. The "Show Dock" boarding gate is at the Halifax Harbor Marina. Call for schedule.

Coastal Cruise Lines:

Boarding at the Sea Harvest Restaurant between the North and South Bridges, New Smyrna Beach (904) 428-0201. Experience Daytona Beach and nearby New Smyrna Beach from a different perspective. Enjoy a leisurely voyage on the "Manatee" which cruises the Indian River on lunch and sunset cruises. Call for schedule.

Sea Critter:

4950 S. Peninsula Drive, Ponce Inlet (904) 767-7676 For those who desire a faster pace, the Sea Critter is a 65-foot, 2160-horsepower vessel that offers a combination scenic inlet cruise with a 30-45 mph "thrill ride" on the Atlantic Ocean. Call for "Blast-off" schedule.

---

Halifax Harbor Marina and Park:

South of Silver Beach Bridge, downtown Daytona Beach (904) 253-0575. A great place to dock your boat and enjoy a picnic or cast your line off the fishing dock. There's also a fuel dock and free public boat ramp. The Columbia Plaza at Halifax Harbor features Spanish and Caribbean cuisine in a magnificent waterfront setting which overlooks Florida's largest east coast marina. Open daily, dawn to dusk.

Downtown Daytona Beach Area

Angell & Phelps Chocolate Factory:

154 S. Beach Street, Daytona Beach (904) 252-6531. A Daytona Beach tradition since 1925, Angell & Phelps Chocolates unveiled its new chocolate factory in late 1994. A free, guided 30-minute tour takes you on a fascinating journey into the history and how-to of the chocolate-making process as you watch some of over 100 kinds of candies being hand-made and boxed for shipment to chocolate lovers around the world.

Dunn Toys & Hobbies:

Kids and adults alike come from miles around to explore the "South's Largest Toy Store," a Daytona Beach tradition since 1904. With two floors of animated displays, unique collectibles, dolls, and toys of all kinds, Dunn Toys in downtown Daytona Beach is the kind of store that dreams are made of. Treat yourself to a lunch or snack break in the 1904 Coffee Shop downstairs, decorated with authentic Daytona Beach memorabilia and sporting a scenic view of Riverfront Park along the Halifax River, (904) 253-3644.

Downtown Daytona Beach Historic District:

In the downtown Daytona Beach area, there is plenty of history still to be seen. A variety of historical museums, churches, galleries and other cultural finds are scattered amongst towering oak trees and beautifully cityscaped streets. Downtown storefronts maintain the charm and charisma of days gone by as shoppers stroll the winding paths of Riverfront Park, nestled on the banks of the scenic Halifax River. A bronze statue marks the entrance to Jackie Robinson Ballpark, the site of this famous African-American's first spring training game in 1946, and history-rich Bethune-Cookman College is just blocks to the west.

Halifax Historical Museum:

252 S. Beach Street, Daytona Beach (904) 255-6976. Housed at the site of the old Merchant's Bank building, this museum features Indian and Spanish artifacts found at nearby plantations, memorabilia from the early days of beach automobile racing and a newspaper file which dates back to 1883. A video, shown in the Ellen Amelia Hofmeyer Daytona Beach Heritage Video Theater, showcases the history of the Daytona Beach area. The museum also features a miniature, wood-carved replica of the Boardwalk area in 1938. Hours are Tuesday through Saturday from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Jackie Robinson Ballpark & Statue:

105 E. Orange Avenue, Daytona Beach (904) 258-3106. The baseball stars of tomorrow are playing today at historic Jackie Robinson Ballpark. The Daytona Cubs are the Chicago Cubs' Class A affiliate in the Florida State League (FSL,) a proven training ground for major league players. Winners of the 1995 FSL championship, the Cubs play their home games from April to September. Back in 1946, Robinson revolutionized modern baseball when he played his first spring training game with the Brooklyn Dodgers' farm team, the Montreal Royals. In honor of this historical event, a bronze statue was erected at the entrance to the ballpark which bears his name. Today, the 4,500-seat stadium is also home to Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University and Bethune-Cookman College baseball games, and the All-Star College Baseball Jamboree.

Art League of Daytona Beach:

433 S. Palmetto Avenue, Daytona Beach (904) 258-3856. Works of state and national artists are on display here, with exhibits changing monthly. The League hosts workshops, classes and demonstrations throughout the year and features an art video library. Open 1 p.m. - 4 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday. Closed during the month of July.

City Island Park:

North of Silver Beach Bridge, downtown Daytona Beach (904) 258-3106. The area's most recently renovated park features acres of green grass and several southern-style gazebos -- the largest perched directly on the banks of the Halifax River. Public boat docks, barbecue grills, volleyball courts and a playground for the children are situated amongst rows of beautiful date palms and cobblestone streets. The park is also the home of the Halifax Rowing Association. Open daily, dawn to dusk.

Halifax Harbor Marina and Park:

South of Silver Beach Bridge, downtown Daytona Beach (904) 253-0575. A great place to dock your boat and enjoy a picnic or cast your line off the fishing dock. There's also a fuel dock and free public boat ramp. The Columbia Plaza at Halifax Harbor features Spanish and Caribbean cuisine in a magnificent waterfront setting which overlooks Florida's largest east coast marina. Open daily, dawn to dusk.

Daytona Int'l Airport, Embry Riddle, Museum of Arts & Sciences*Daytona Beach International Airport:

Daytona Beach International Airport, completed in 1992, makes flying into Daytona Beach as convenient as staying here. Service to Daytona Beach International Airport is provided by several major airlines, which offer scheduled air service to over 150 domestic and international destinations. Virtually everything at the airport is new and improved. The 175,000-square-foot Main Terminal offers a variety of services including a new U.S. Customs area, duty-free shopping, foreign currency exchange, a gourmet restaurant, a self-service buffet-style restaurant, and two lounges -- all with a panoramic airfield view. The airport also features meeting/banquet facilities and a unique collection of Florida artwork.

Within one mile of Interstate 4 and Interstate 95 -- and just a few minutes from the beach -- Daytona Beach International Airport is truly a gateway to Central Florida. Transportation to and from the airport is easy, too. Taxi service and car rentals are available right at the main terminal; or you can take one of the convenient shuttles which travel to the beach and other locations.

Regularly scheduled transportation between the Orlando International Airport and the Daytona Beach International Airport is available through the Daytona-Orlando Transit Service (DOTS.) In addition, several bus lines offer service to Central Florida attractions and theme parks.
